

This leaflet aims to give you a summary of the procedure for dealing with “local” appeals to the Development Management Review Committee. However, if at any stage you are not sure about any aspect of the process, please phone Sarah Forsyth, Committee Officer (Law and Administration), on 01307 476269, or email her at forsythsl@angus.gov.uk

Where and when does the Committee meet?

Development Management Review Committee meetings normally take place in the Canmore Room, Municipal Buildings, Forfar on the same day as the Development Standards Committee. There is disabled access.

What is the procedure at the meeting?

The Convener (chairperson) will ensure that all members have received and read the papers submitted by the Planning Authority and the applicant.

A flow chart detailing the stages of the process is detailed within this leaflet.

Applicants and the Planning Authority are required to submit an electronic version of plans and photographs or ten paper copies of all material are to be submitted.

More detailed information on this process can be accessed by visiting

www.angus.gov.uk

Development Management Review Committee

Information
Information

The Review Process

Notes

(1) Form to be requested and sent out by Law and Administration.

(2) 'Interested Parties' are -

- Any authority or party consulted by the Planning Authority about the application who made representations.
- Any person who made timeous representations to the Planning Authority about the application.

(3) All meetings (or hearings) of the Development Management Review Committee (DMRC) are held in public.

