

ANGUS COUNCILROADS COMMITTEE - 11 JUNE 1998*CONFIRMATION OF ANGUS COUNCIL (ORCHARD STREET, ARBROATH)
(STOPPING-UP) ORDER 1998*REPORT BY THE DIRECTOR OF LAW AND ADMINISTRATION*ABSTRACT

Planning permission granted in respect of the redevelopment of the vacant site at Burnside Road/ Guthrie Port, Arbroath to be redeveloped by Safeway Stores plc as a supermarket site required for its implementation the stopping up of two lengths of road and relative footways at Orchard Street, Arbroath. The Council, in terms of Sections 207 and 208 of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997 ("the Act") made a Stopping Up of Roads and Relative Footways Order at Orchard Street, Arbroath authorising the required stopping up.

1. RECOMMENDATION

The Committee are asked to confirm the Stopping Up Order authorising the stopping up of two lengths of road and relative footways at Orchard Street, Arbroath.

2. BACKGROUND

The Council on 8 May 1998 gave public notice that they have made the aforementioned Stopping Up of Roads and Relative Footways Order. A period of 28 days from that date was allowed for making objections to the Order. No objections have been received.

3. PROPOSAL

It is proposed that the unopposed Order be confirmed in accordance with Schedule 16, Paragraph 7 of the Act.

4. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

The Order has been promoted by the Council on behalf of Safeway Stores plc. All costs incurred in the promotion of the Order will be recovered from Safeway Stores plc.

5. CONSULTATION

The Chief Executive, Director of Finance, Director of Roads and Director of Planning and Transport have been consulted on the content of the Report.

CATHERINE A COULL
