This report is to confirm that the Service Plan for the Chief Executive's Department has been prepared and is available in the Members' Lounge for perusal.

1. RECOMMENDATIONS

It is recommended that the Committee:

1. notes this report, and
2. approves the Service Plan for the Chief Executive's Department for the period 2001-2004.

2. DETAILS

The Service Plan sets out the context in which the Council is operating with particular reference to policies emanating from the Scottish Parliament including Best Value, Community Planning and the agenda for Modernising Government. It also highlights the development of Angus Council strategies in the context of the Corporate Plan 2000-2003 and the development of integrated three year Service Plans and Budgets.

A summary of the Department's achievements during 2000/2001 is included and the priority service areas for 2001/2004 are set out in detail along with target dates. These relate to all sections of the Department:-

- Policy & Performance
- Public Relations
- Corporate Support and Members Services
- Economic Development
- Emergency Planning
