The purpose of this Report is to provide information on certain Premises Licences, and to invite the Board to determine that these Premise Licences have ceased to have effect.

1. RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the Board determine that the premises licence(s) detailed in the attached appendix have ceased to have effect.

2. BACKGROUND

Section 28 of the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005 ("the 2005 Act") provides, amongst others, that a premises licence ceases to have effect where:

- (a) the premises licence is revoked under any provision of the 2005 Act;
- (b) the licensed premises cease to be used for the sale of alcohol;
- (c) the premises licence holder being an individual:
 - (i) dies; or
 - (ii) becomes incapable within the meaning of Section 1(6) of the Adults with Incapacity (Scotland) 2000;
- (d) the premises licence holder, being an individual, a partnership or a company becomes insolvent;
- (e) the premises licence holder, being a person other than an individual, a partnership or a company is dissolved;
- (f) the Licensing Board receives from the premises licence holder a notice surrendering the licence, accompanied by the premises licence or a statement of reasons for failure to produce the licence.

There are exceptions to the above. A premises licence does not cease to have effect in respect of the insolvency, dissolution, death or incapacity of the premises licence holder if an application to transfer the premises licence is received by the Clerk within 28 days of the date of the insolvency, dissolution, death or incapacity of the premises licence holder as the case may be.

3. LEGAL IMPLICATIONS

It appears to the Clerk that the licences referred to in the Appendix have respectively ceased to have effect in terms of the 2005 Act. The Board is asked to determine that the Premises Licences referred to in the Appendix have ceased to have effect and for the reasons referred to therein.

4. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

There are no financial implications arising from this Report.

5. HUMAN RIGHTS IMPLICATIONS

In dealing with the matters as set out in this report, the Board will have regard to any human rights issues in relation to the licence holders.

Members are advised that Article 1 of the First Protocol of the European Convention of Human Rights (i.e. protection of property) applies in relation to this Report. The licence holder is considered to be the owner of the licence and as such is entitled to the peaceful enjoyment of his/her possession. However, Angus Licensing Board may take such action as it deems necessary to control the use of the property in accordance with the general interest and subject to the conditions provided for by law. Article 14 requires non-discriminatory treatment of individuals in the enjoyment of their rights.

The legal basis for taking any action in connection with this Report is in terms of Section 28 of the the 2005 Act.

Any actions considered by the Licensing Board must be proportionate, i.e. there should be as little intervention as possible to achieve the Board's desired aim. If the Board is minded to suspend the licence, members must first consider the Board's desired aim in imposing a period of suspension and must also consider an appropriate period of suspension taking into account the guidance on proportionality and must ensure that their decision does not discriminate against the licence holder.
