- History of Angus Schools
- The following papers consist of brief histories of many of the schools in the county of Angus, compiled, in the main, from school log books. Chronologies listing the main events in the school's history are often also included. There are also brief histories of some of the School Boards, taken from the minutes and from newspapers. The papers are in typescript and manuscript form and were compiled in 1974 by Trevor Johns, Adviser in Secondary Education in Angus, in his capacity as chairman of the Working Party on the History of Angus Schools. They were designed as the basis for an intended publication.
